

CT COLT Poster Contest Winners
Chairperson, Ellen J. Steele, Ph.D.

The President and the Board of Directors of CT COLT would like to extend out thanks to you, the language teachers, and the students from the many schools who participated in the 14th annual CT COLT Poster Contest. This year over 124 students from 31 schools throughout Connecticut took part in this contest.

Lucie Ledbetter is the Grand Prize winner. She is a 6th grade student at the Foote School in New Haven. She is a French I student and her teacher is Jenny Byers. Lucie's poster was reproduced and distributed at the Spring Conference on May 2 at the Farmington Public Library, Community Room.

Devin Marino, a 10th grader at Coginchaug Regional High School, won First Place in the Grade 9-12 division. She is a Spanish II student and her teacher is Nancy Alberico.

Christopher "Kip" Orban, a 6th grader at Bedford Middle School in Westport won First Place in the Grade 6-8 division. He is a Spanish I student of Amy Kaplan.

Julia Callahan, a 5th grader at the Foot School won First Place in the Grade 3-5 division. She is a French I student of Jenny Byers.

Marin Keefe, grade 2, won First Place in the Kindergarten to 2nd Grade division. She is a Spanish student in the FLES program at the Burnham School in Bridgewater, CT. Her teachers are Ms. Loomis and Señora Granka.

The participation of these students in this contest demonstrates your commitment to the promotion of world language study. We applaud your support and hope that you will continue to be involved with this annual event.
