Permission for Use of Student Work and/or Photograph on CT COLT Web Site Year of Languages Scrapbook Page

The purpose of the 2005: The Year of Languages web site is to inform, publicize, and promote language learning and teaching in the United States. The web site is open to the public at www.ctcolt.org and sponsored by the Connecticut Council of Language Teachers (CT COLT), a non-profit organization whose members are language educators.

The purpose of this form is to request permission of parents/guardians to use the work or photographs of their children that pertain to the Year of Languages activities and events conducted throughout the nation during 2005. These electronic images will be featured on the web site and then archived in an area of the site that can be accessed by visitors to the site. Only the first name and initial of the last name will be used to identify students. We may also use these same materials and this same information in connection with other CT COLT offerings in our discretion, such as print and electronic publications, brochures, reports, etc.

Please print out this form, fill it out, and return to your child's teacher.
