

Connecticut Council of Language Teachers

Jane G. Graveen Award

In 1999, an annual award of up to $300 was established in memory of Jane G. Graveen, former head teacher of Glastonbury's Foreign Language in the Elementary School (FLES) program. During her tenure in Glastonbury, she made immeasurable contributions to students, to staff and to the community, helping preserve the program as a nationally recognized model.

PURPOSE OF AWARD: To support the accomplishments of a FLES teacher by providing funding for the purchase of classroom materials.ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS: All elementary FLES teachers who are current CT COLT members with at least two years of continuous membership and who are teaching FLES at least 50 percent of the time in a public or private elementary school in Connecticut. This award is not available to previous recipients.

IMPORTANT DATES: The award will be announced at the CT COLT Spring Conference and must be used in the following academic year. The application deadline is August 15th. Disbursement of funds will be made to the recipient upon receipt of appropriate documentation.

FOLLOW-UP: The recipient of the award will agree to either submit an article for the "Teacher Tips" section of the CT COLT News Exchange or give a presentation at the next annual Fall Conference.CONTRIBUTIONS ALWAYS WELCOME AND GREATLY APPRECIATED!

For a minimum contribution of $10.00, you will receive an official CT COLT realia, in addition to the satisfaction of knowing that you have supported your state language organization and its professional development activities.

Please send your tax-deductible contribution, any questions you may have, and/or your application form to
