The Education Office of the Embassy of Spain (Consejería de Educación y Ciencia) is pleased to award a scholarship to a Spanish Teacher designated by the Connecticut Council of Language Teachers.

The scholarship will cover tuition, accommodation, meals, participation in activities, and materials for one of the 22 Summer Institutes to be held in a Spanish University in July 2005. The University and the course will be decided in March 2005.

The courses are generally focused on Spanish language and culture, children's literature and/or the teaching of Spanish. To find out more: <http://www.sgci.mec.es/usa/becas/index.shtml>

Requirements:

- Applicants will agree to attend and participate fully in the three-week institute, as well as to continue teaching Spanish the following school year.
- Applicants should be proficient in Spanish, since all classes and activities will be conducted in that language.
- Applicants must fill out the application form below
- Applicants must supply a letter of recommendation (from department supervisor or principal) that addresses the intent of the award.
- Applicants must include a concise curriculum vitae/résumé
- Applicants must supply a statement of the objectives that they have for this institute and the benefits that they would derive from the experience
